SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES AND ADVICE FOR OVERSEAS STUDY IN SUMMER 2022

- Will study abroad programs be running in Summer 2022, considering the COVID-19 pandemic?
 - While planning to continue with Summer 2022 programs, the Office of Overseas Study continues to closely monitor the COVID-19 pandemic and follow guidance from national and international organizations, such as World Health Organization, Centers for Disease Control, and the U.S. Department of State. We also are in touch with our study abroad partners and providers to determine if they are able to host IU students in Summer 2022.

- I have been accepted to a Summer 2022 study abroad program. If I decide not to go, can I get my $500 prepayment back? Can I defer to a future term?
 - Generally, students who withdraw from a Summer 2022 program at least 14 days prior to the program start date or whose program is cancelled will be refunded their $500 prepayment, but these details vary by program. Please check the details of your program's withdrawal and refund policy carefully. Students interested in deferring to a future term (and who are still eligible for that term) should speak with their study abroad advisor.

- Should I purchase an air ticket for travel to my program destination for Summer 2022?
 - No. Students are advised to avoid incurring any financial commitments until 60 days prior to program start date.

- If I withdraw from my Summer 2022 program, what happens to any study abroad scholarships I received?
 - Students should not expect to receive any study abroad-related scholarships, if their program abroad is cancelled.

The total fixed fee includes academic fees, housing, excursions, and health insurance valid during the program dates. In late April you will be notified by the Bloomington Bursar via e-mail that your statement is available for viewing from the web through IU Bursar Pay. The $500 prepayment and any applicable IUB financial aid will be reflected as credit. The fees listed as "IU-Admin" are the instructional fees that qualify as educational costs. Those listed as "Miscellaneous" include all the non-instructional costs of the program, such as housing and health insurance.

Students will need additional funds to pay the estimated additional program costs. These will vary from student to student as they are based on individual spending habits and lifestyle choices. The dollar's value will also affect your costs.

Rows include International Airfare, Groceries and meals, Personal Expenses, Incidentals, Total ESTIMATED Additional Costs, Total Estimated Program Costs, Total Fixed Fees Paid to IU, Total Estimated Additional Program Costs, and Total ESTIMATED Costs.

If your financial assistance is greater than the IU fees, the difference will be refunded to you. Students should arrange to have the funds deposited into a U.S. bank account (see the Student Central website https://studentcentral.indiana.edu/pay-for-college/index.html). If for some reason direct deposit is not an option, instruct the Bursar to mail a check to your permanent address where someone is authorized to open your mail and deposit the check into your bank account.

IU Withdrawal and Refund Policy

Students who withdraw from IU administered programs are responsible for non-recoverable costs. Your Bursar account will be assessed an additional charge to cover any/all amounts that Overseas Study has committed or paid on your behalf and are non-recoverable at the time of withdrawal, possibly including housing, meals, transportation, and faculty or staff compensation.
