

The IES fees (OVST Provider instructional fee and OVST provider miscellaneous fee) includes academic fees, housing, orientation, local excursions, and medical insurance. The miscellaneous provider fee includes the non-instructional costs of the program, such as housing ($4,275) and health insurance ($230). In late August the Bloomington bursar will send an e-mail notifying you that your statement is available for viewing and printing from the web through IU Bursar Pay. Your $500 prepayment and any IUB scholarships or loans will be listed as credits there.

The IU Service fee underwrites the operation of the Office of Overseas Study.

Based on published IES materials. Indiana University cannot guarantee the prices charged by IES and is not responsible for any price increase or change.

The IES fees cover the cost of two courses at a partner institution. Students are responsible for all additional expense is they choose to take more than two courses at a partner institution. The cost can be up to $1,870 per course.

Students will need funds to pay the estimated additional costs associated with the program (i.e. food, personal expenses, international travel). These costs vary significantly from student to student because they are based on the individual spending habits and lifestyle. The dollar's value will also affect your costs. Use the costs as an approximate guide.
